Bukit Canberra has finally opened its doors to its long-awaited swimming complex.

The opening event was joined by Minister Ong Ye Kung, adviser to Sembawang Central, Dr Lim Wee Kiak, adviser to Canberra, Mr Vikram Nair, adviser to Admiralty, and Ms Mariam Jaafar, adviser to Woodlands.

Hordes of swimmers turned up to experience these new pools, and had a great time trying out aqua Zumba and aqua aerobics, amongst other activities.

The 4 pools provide many options for residents, and contribute to promoting a healthy, active lifestyle.
