Our advisers Minister Ong Ye Kung and Dr Lim Wee Kiak joined residents in having fun at the Christmas Light Up event held on 10 December 2023. The spacious lawn in Bukit Canberra brightened up to become a dazzling wonderland with colorful-looking seats and a Christmas tree adorned with ribbons, lights and cutely-designed decorations.

Residents smiled brightly as they immersed themselves in the beautiful sights surrounding them and interacted with one another face-to-face.

Elderly residents across the seven zones in Woodlands have enjoyable times during this year's Grandparents' Day as they participated in a myriad of events ranging from Zumba to Bingo. Ms Mariam Jaafar, adviser to Woodlands, derived great pleasure by joining residents in the fun.

Other than expressing a deep sense of love and appreciation to the elderly residents, Ms Mariam Jaafar also thanked the Residents' Network (RN) members and community partners who organized these fun-filled and deeply-satisfying events.

The Senior Citizens Executive Committee (SCEC), Dementia SG and Dementia&Co. organized a year-end family tea dance event on 10 December 2023, where more than 160 seniors and friends living with dementia as well as their families were treated to games, exercises, and costume design.

Ms Poh Li San, adviser to Sembawang West, joined residents in the fun, and felt heartened that these tea dance events were conducted for seniors to combat their loneliness and boredom by having them interact with others meaningfully and happily.
