

Dear ${FNAME}$,

Happy Chinese New Year! We wish you happiness, good health and prosperity in the New Year!

The Lunar New Year spirit has been growing in our Town due to the many festivities brought to our residents the past few weeks. Check them out below.

Speaking of new, Woodlands has a new High Covered Linkway, bringing better convenience to our residents.

Also, Woodlands Community Club will be going through a major upgrade and will be closed from 1 February 2023. Scroll down to see their temporary office locations during their upgrading period.

Stay tuned to our weekly highlights for more news closer to home. Join our Telegram channel, follow us on Facebook to stay in the know.

Harvest at Blk 686 Community Garden

In the early morning on 14 January 2023, Mr Vikram Nair and the volunteers from BW Monastery 吉祥宝聚寺 harvested crops at the community garden at Blk 686 Woodlands Drive 73. You can tell that the crops are very well taken care of because they look absolutely delish and pretty!

Do you know these vegetables are sent to the monastery's kitchen after the harvest and prepared fresh?

The volunteers have also decorated the place with artificial flowers handmade with recycled materials. It is so convincing that even the touch of it feels real!
