Chubby's Fried

We will like to recommend you Singapore's First Herbal Oil Fried - Chubby's Fried. We were so spoiled with choices when we saw the different variety of food they have offered. They also have different flavours for you to choose from and we chose the Xiang La (香辣) flavour. The food was meticulously fried and it was spicy and juicy when we had every bite of it. Go give it a try now at Sun Plaza level 1 and you will definitely like it too!

Attention Mala lovers! We would like to bring your attention to this Mala stall in NOM's Bistro, located at Sembawang MRT station! We've heard many good reviews about this place and we now know why. They had a quite a variety of ingredients for choosing. We took many for our favourite ingredients and we were surprised at how affordable it was!

We recommend this place to residents coming back home from work/school and if you are craving for Mala.
