

Dear ${FNAME}$,

The past few weeks were jam packed with exciting events and new developments. We saw the official opening of the Woodlands Sports Pavilion, celebrated International Women's Day at the SG Women's Festival, Admiralty Resilience Day, and the annual Canberra Day!

We also featured the Woodlands North Coast and an upcoming new Community Garden in Canberra.

Scroll down to see the food recommendation for our recent #EatWhatFriday!

If our students are unsure of what to do for this March Holiday, check out Woodlands' School Holiday programmes below.

It was yet another exciting Sunday at Bukit Canberra for the annual Canberra Day!

The indoor sports hall came alive with residents even before the event officially started. There were many students in their school uniforms eagerly waiting to receive their Edusave awards. Adviser Dr Lim Wee Kiak also took this opportunity to launch the community volunteers network.

There were so many exciting things that residents could enjoy, from stage performances to kids playing area to food to sports try-outs, and many more. Everyone came empty-handed and left with so many goodies.

Admiralty's Community Resilience Day took place last Saturday, next to Vista Park. Organized by the C2E team and the Zone 4 RC, the event educated our residents on emergency preparedness, awareness on scams, dengue prevention, digital enablement, and more! It surely was an educational day for our residents.

#eatwhatfriday: Hakka Taste Sg 客家味

We chanced upon a food review about Hakka Taste Sg 客家味 on Tiktok and we had to try it out for ourselves!

We ordered their Signature Set which came with Bak Chor Mee and a clear soup which had Tau Kee (Beancurd Skin), Tau Kua (Tofu), and meatballs. For the Bak Chor Mee, the noodles had a nice bite to it and came with a generous portion of minced meat. The soup may look light, but it sure had a lot of flavour to it. Also, the meatballs were firm yet nice and chewy.
