#Eatwhatfriday RETURNS!

Lian Huat Fish Soup:

Perfect for a rainy day, Lian Huat Fish Soup serves generous portions of fish-based soups.

The fish were fresh and delectable, whilst the fried fish version of the soup was not greasy and even extremely crisp, pairing well with the aromatic soup.

Check them out at Proxima @ 50 Gambas Cres, Singapore 757022

Hugabo:

Recently opened at Sun Plaza, Hugabo offers a wide selection of soup bases and side dishes! What's more exciting is that you get to customize your own soup set, which also comes along with dessert! Choose among spicy or non-spicy soup bases, accompanied with your chosen type of protein - either chicken, beef, fish or seafood.

We highly recommend their Mala soup base, which was was fragrant and spicy, tantalizing our tastebuds with a numbing kick.
