Woodlands National Day Observance Ceremony & Carnival

Woodlands held their National Day Observance Ceremony on National Day itself! The crowd danced to the 2024 NDP theme song, cheered for the amazing performances by local children, and came together for a heartfelt singalong of 'Home,' culminating in a truly unforgettable finale. Our Adviser, Ms. Mariam Jaafar, was on the floor meeting residents, taking photos, and even joined the singalong on stage!

New footpath at Blk 693D Woodlands Ave 6

After many requests from residents and students at Spectra Secondary School, our Adviser, Mr. Vikram Nair, is excited to announce the opening of a new footpath connecting Blk 693D Woodlands Ave 6 to the light industrial buildings! This project required significant behind-the-scenes effort, including obtaining permission from the Singapore Land Authority and support from Sembawang Town Council. We hope this footpath will provide greater convenience to both residents and workers in the area.

National Day Celebration organised by Sembawang West Zone D RN

Our Adviser, Ms. Poh Li San, recently celebrated National Day with Sembawang West Zone D RN! The event featured nostalgic kampung songs, traditional snacks, and classic games from the past. Parents enjoyed sharing their childhood memories with their children, who had a blast playing and bouncing in the castle. The atmosphere was lively and filled with laughter, truly embodying the spirit of community.
