Sembawang Central Racial Harmony Day @ Wellington Primary School

Photo Source: Ong Ye Kung's Facebook

Minister Ong Ye Kung, our Adviser recently celebrated Racial Harmony Day with residents at Wellington Primary School! Minister Ong went around trying the various game booths set up by students and community partners and even challenged a resident to a game of carrom. Attendees were able to collect plenty of freebies like ice cream and lunch boxes and there were even coupons to redeem cultural snacks like muah chee, prata and otah. It was truly a day of celebrating Singapore's melting pot of cultures and embracing differences.

Admiralty YOUNity Harmony Walk

Our Adviser, Mr. Vikram Nair celebrated Racial Harmony Day in a meaningful way with a walk. Admiralty YOUNity Harmony Walk saw a turn up of more than 500 people, which included representatives and volunteers from Admiralty's major religious organisations and a variety of community partners and grassroots organisations. The event was a more contemplative take on Racial Harmony celebrations and focused on reflection and understanding. To build understanding and respect of each other's practices, the event started with a dialogue session with the various religious groups and ended with a symbolic tree planting session.

Sembawang West's Racial Harmony Carnival

Sembawang West celebrated Racial Harmony Day with a carnival! There were performances, cultural booths and multi-racial food stores to experience. Some attendees were even able to cinch the title of best-dressed, sporting their beautiful cultural garb and flaunting it. Our Adviser, Ms. Poh Li San, was delighted to see the community come together in such a festive and harmonious spirit. The carnival not only showcased the rich tapestry of cultures within our neighbourhood but also fostered bonds of friendship and mutual respect among attendees.
