Celebrating the Fathers of Beacon RN (Canberra Zone 3 RN)

The Deck Residents Network, also known as Canberra Zone 3 RN, recently hosted a meaningful Parents' Day celebration that brought families together. The fun, hands-on activities gave dads a wonderful opportunity to bond with their children and smiles were everywhere as residents came together to celebrate fatherhood. Adviser Mr Ng Shi Xuan also joined in the festivities, warmly sharing in the proud and joyful spirit of the occasion.

Music Night @ Canberra Plaza was truly a night to remember. The community event had Little Band Plus perform a mix of pop and Mandarin classics through the night as residents and visitors relaxed on camping chairs around glowing tables. There were also game stations and arts and crafts booths where kids could get creative, all while wiggling along to the music in the background!

Father's Day Showdown: Canberra Super Dads vs Lava Floor

Canberra Skyclife RN and Canberra Youth Network brought together 20 parent-child pairs for the viral and thrilling "lava floor" challenge! Super dads championed their way through the "dangerous lava" with their brave little sidekicks. For those who preferred a mental workout, tabletop games like Mahjong and Monopoly were also available as a fun alternative. It was truly an electric Father's Day celebration.

Shrink Art at Sembawang West Zone E RN!

Sembawang West Zone E RN held a fun shrink art session this June holiday, and it was a hit with both kids and adults! Participants were fully engaged with tracing, colouring, and perfecting every detail of their artwork. The real magic happened when their creations shrank into mini-sized charms, inciting "Oohs" and "Aahs" around the room! Proudly showing off their colourful keychains, everyone had a fantastic time.
