Canberra Zone 2 RN celebrated their 20th anniversary with a mega carnival for residents, offering a day of family fun. Activities included animal rides, a bouncy castle, a mini-photo studio, game booths, and performances. Tasty snacks such as hot dogs, ice cream, popcorn, cotton candy, muah chee, and kacang puteh were available. There were also door gifts, a lucky draw, and stage games with prizes for everyone to enjoy!

Adviser Ms Poh Li San had a wonderful time wearing a sari and embracing the traditions of Indian culture during the recent Deepavali Carnival. The event was a meaningful celebration for the community, with residents and performers alike enjoying the festivities. A special thank you was extended to the IAEC team, particularly Chairperson Tharun Thangaraj, for organising such a meaningful and memorable celebration.

Sembawang Central: Mangala Deepavali 2024

Sembawang Central recently celebrated Deepavali with a vibrant communal buffet dinner, filled with stage performances and fun activities for all ages. Residents got into the spirit of the festivities by participating in the best-dressed competition by strutting down the runway, and dancing to the infectious music. There were even art booths where the children could get their hands busy with crafting. Our Adviser, Mr Ong Ye Kung, joined in the celebrations, even taking part in the dancing! It was a truly memorable evening of togetherness, laughter, and community bonding.
