Sembawang Central goes brisk-walking with Jack Neo

Our Adviser, Min. Ong Ye Kung teamed up with Singapore's beloved filmmaker and comedian, Jack Neo, for Sembawang Central's Community Sports Network's brisk-walking event last Saturday. The event ingeniously blended karaoke with exercise, igniting a fervent energy among the crowd as they stretched and sang along to pulsating beats, right beside Sun Plaza.

Corpse flower at Canberra Zone 1's community garden

Dr. Lim Wee Kiak, PBM, our Adviser visited Canberra Zone 1's community garden to look at their flowering Elephant Foot Yam! This plant blooms once every few years and is notorious for emitting a pungent smell resembling a decomposing animal towards the end of its lifespan. This has caused the flower to earn the moniker "corpse flower". How exciting that the residents of Canberra have such a rare flower blooming so close to home!

A heartfelt appreciation to the volunteer gardeners of Canberra Zone 1 for their unwavering dedication in nurturing and showcasing uncommonly seen species in Singapore's greenery.

Clean and Green Day with Admiralty Zone 6 RN

Our Adviser, Mr. Vikram Nair, exemplified the spirit of SG Clean Day 2024 by joining residents in Admiralty to clean up litter and plant trees. This quarterly initiative encourages personal responsibility for our communal cleanliness, as cleaners pause sweeping in selected public spaces, fostering a collaborative drive towards a cleaner environment.

Woodlands unveils its first MSCP community garden

Our Adviser, Ms. Mariam Jaafar, unveiled Woodlands's inaugural carpark rooftop community garden at Blk 671. With over 30 enthusiastic residents signing up as community gardeners, bonds were forged, and harvests will soon be shared. The crops which sprout in the garden will be donated to low-income residents and welfare homes, fostering a spirit of generosity and unity among the community.
