Christmas Wishes Come True in Woodlands

Photo Source: Mariam Jaafar's Facebook

The festive season feels extra special when the community comes together to bring joy to our children. Adviser Ms Mariam Jaafar shared how this year's Woodlands Christmas Gifting initiative allowed 100 children to pick their own gifts, enjoy games and crafts, and walk away with generous goody bags and lucky draw prizes. She expressed heartfelt thanks to partners Avon and UCT, the Woodlands Youth Network teams, and the many volunteers whose care and hard work made this a truly meaningful celebration for families.

Tea, Music and Connection for Sembawang West Seniors

Caring for loved ones living with dementia can be challenging, and Adviser Ms Poh Li San shared how the Sembawang West Family Tea Dance has become a monthly source of comfort and joy. Through music, dance and time spent together, seniors and caregivers found light and connection in a warm, welcoming space. She thanked Alison and Jamie from Dementia & Co, along with the dedicated Senior Citizens' Executive Committee (SCEC) team, for supporting these sessions over the past four years and making Sunday tea dances something many look forward to.

Christmas Cheer Fills Naval Base

Christmas spirit was well and truly alive in Naval Base, with residents of all ages soaking in the festive atmosphere together. It was a blast as everyone enjoyed lively performances, a Christmas tree light-up and falling "snow". Adviser Mr Ng Shi Xuan even joined in the festivities by singing "It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year" on stage! The evening also marked the unveiling of the Naval Base constituency logo, with a design that reflects both heritage and hopes for the future. The celebration wrapped up with smiles all around, leaving behind warm memories to carry into the year ahead.

Spectacular Christmas Carnival Lights Up Canberra

The festive season kicked off in Canberra with a heartwarming Christmas tree light-up that brought neighbours together. Adviser Mr Gabriel Lam joined residents as children soaked in the excitement, families snapped photos, and the space buzzed with festive cheer. From carnival rides and games stalls to snacks and a magical snow party, there was something for everyone to enjoy. The evening was made even more special when residents surprised Mr Gabriel with birthday wishes, rounding off a joyful night filled with warmth and community spirit.

One Community Fiesta Brings Admiralty Together

Admiralty's One Community Fiesta was a lively celebration of inclusivity, connection and teamwork. Residents from all walks of life took part in an Amazing Race through Chinatown, forming mixed teams of seniors, new citizens, caregivers and friends from MINDS. Guided by dedicated volunteers, participants explored heritage spots, tackled challenges and built new friendships along the way.
