Happy New Year from Woodlands!

Photo Source: Mariam Jaafar's Facebook

Woodlands Waterfront came alive as more than 8,500 people gathered to count down to the new year together, joined by Adviser Ms Mariam Jaafar. Families and friends enjoyed carnival games, bouncy castles, food stalls, music and sober party vibes by the water. The night was capped off with fireworks and a drone show that told the story of Woodlands, from its coastal kampung roots to the town it is today. More than the spectacle, it was the shared joy and togetherness that made the night truly special.

Hoofbeats and Smiles in Sembawang!

About 100 residents spent a lovely afternoon outdoors at Gallop Stable @ Sembawang, joined by Adviser Mr Ong Ye Kung. From horse riding and a stables tour to trying their hand at archery, it was a refreshing change of pace for families and seniors alike. The new stable along Sembawang Road offers riding lessons, pony rides and trail experiences, adding another exciting outdoor option for residents of all ages. It was great to see so many smiles and first-time experiences shared together.

Sembawang Budding Rangers' First Excursion in 2026!

Adviser Mr Ng Shi Xuan spent a meaningful morning with 15 children and their parents at Sembawang Park, encouraging everyone to put screens aside and reconnect with nature. This is one of Naval Base's initiatives, the Sembawang Budding Rangers programme, which aims to create space for families to slow down, explore and enjoy time together in nature. It was a small group, but one that reminded everyone how new experiences, even simple ones, can make a big difference for our children.

If you'd like your child to have a chance to connect with nature as a Sembawang Budding Ranger, you can sign up here: <https://form.gov.sg/694a4d515e5df70edd8bdc2e>

Packing Schoolbags and Hopes for the Year Ahead

Pack My Backpack 2025 returned with the support of sponsors, the Youth Network and Republic Polytechnic volunteers, bringing smiles to children from less well-off families. Adviser Ms Poh Li San shared appreciation for the many hands that prepared schoolbags, pre-loved books and book vouchers, while also making learning fun through games that taught basic financial literacy. More than the items, the hope is that the children start the school year feeling supported, confident and ready to learn.

Starting the Year with Gratitude at Admiralty Zone 5

Admiralty Zone 5 RN marked the new year with a simple but thoughtful appreciation night for residents who have supported its activities over the past year. Adviser Mr Vikram Nair joined the gathering, where neighbours shared a meal and enjoyed a movie together. It was a quiet evening focused on fellowship and gratitude, and a nice way to begin the year by thanking those who help keep the community active and connected.
